

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING ON STUDENT EXCHANGE BETWEEN
SCHOOL OF INFORMATION AND DATA SCIENCES, NAGASAKI UNIVERSITY
AND
INDRAPRASTHA INSTITUTE OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY DELHI
BASED ON THE AGREEMENT ON ACADEMIC COOPERATION BETWEEN SCHOOL OF INFORMATION AND DATA SCIENCES,
NAGASAKI UNIVERSITY AND
INDRAPRASTHA INSTITUTE OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY DELHI

Based on the “Agreement on Academic Cooperation between School of Information and Data Sciences, Nagasaki University and Indraprastha Institute of Information Technology Delhi” (“Academic Cooperation Agreement”) signed on 3 MAR 2022, both parties have agreed to conclude a Memorandum of Understanding (“Memorandum”) to specify the terms and conditions of the student exchange.

- 1 Number of students
Each institution shall accept up to five (5) undergraduate and graduate students to participate in the subject student exchange for periods equal to one (1) academic year for each academic year subject to this Memorandum.
- 2 Recommendation and determination
The host institution may select the student exchange participants based on the home institution’s recommendations.
- 3 Status
Participating exchange students shall be registered as non-degree students at the host institution.
- 4 Period
In principle, the period for each participating exchange student is within one (1) academic year. After this initial period, a participating student may extend the length of his or her study period for up to one (1) additional academic year, upon the approval of both host and home institutions.
- 5 Course application
Participating exchange students may apply to take courses at the host institution. The host institution, however, reserves the right to decline such application based on existing restrictions on application.
- 6 Evaluation
At the end of the exchange period of each participating exchange student, the host institution shall inform the home institution of the relevant student’s academic performance.
Academic achievements earned at the host institution shall be assessed by the home institution according to its curricula. The home institution may or may not recognize such achievements as equivalent to the credit(s) to be taken at the home institution.

7 Expenses

Neither party shall levy application, admission, or tuition fees on the participating exchange students. All other related expenses, including accommodation expenses, transportation costs, living expenses and adequate health and accident insurance expenses, shall be borne by the participating exchange students. The host institution shall undertake efforts to locate housing for the participating exchange students.

8 Insurance

Both parties may require participating exchange students to enroll in recommended health and accident insurance plans.

9 Amendment

This Memorandum may be amended only in writing upon the agreement of both parties.

In the future, if any issues arise out of or in relation to this Memorandum, the two parties shall resolve such issues through thorough negotiations.

10 Term

This Memorandum is valid from the joint signature date until the designated termination date set forth in the Academic Cooperation Agreement.

This Memorandum may be renewed after being renegotiated by both parties.

11 Termination

This Memorandum may be terminated by either party upon prior written notice to the other party made at least six (6) months prior to the expiration date. Even after the related agreements are terminated, students who have been accepted under this Memorandum are entitled to participate in the relevant study period under the same conditions as originally planned.

12 Compliance with laws, rules, and regulations

Both institutions shall observe and comply with all laws, rules, and regulations of each country in which this Memorandum is performed.

13 This Memorandum is to be executed in English.
